

and

100 year Centenary of Penrose

10am-4pm

Penrose Public School
Penrose Road, Penrose

Entry only $2, with the chance to win one of 3 magazine subscriptions ( Sanctuary, Peppermint, Earth Garden)
Children under 12 are free

First 500 visitors through the gate receive a copy of Organic Gardener magazine

website:www.sustainablelivingfestival.info

all day activities

12.30

Welcome to Country
Official opening by Pru Goward MP
Pru will also award prizes to Sculpture in the Bush competition winners

100 years in Penrose - historical photographic exhibition celebrating the centenary of the gazetting of Penrose village Penrose School children write stories and create artworks of their life in the village

Sculpture in the Bush exhibition - competition of sculptures made from recycled or found objects for adults and children

Prizes will be awarded at the official opening Visit our website for more information and entry form

Artists' studio - watch artists at work in the art studio including potters, painters and cartoonist

music stage

Sit back with a tea or coffee and homemade cake and enjoy the music of local musicians Paddys River Bushband, Stringular, Penrose Public School Choir and ensemble and Rapunzels Party

stalls

Organic food, organic coffee, fruit and vegetables, plants, herbal teas, honey, pickles and preserves, fresh local eggs, 2nd hand books, womens vintage clothing, hemp clothing, alpaca wool products, recycled art, sustainable architecture, design and building products, renewable energies, natural cleaning products, natural therapies and massages, bushcare and land for wildlife information, Bundy on Tap bottle-free water and much,much more

If you would like to have a stall visit our website for further information and form

demonstrations / displays

Measure your ecological footprint
Breadmaking
Strawbale construction
Blacksmithing and wrought iron with Carly Timber Peg making with Chris Nance
Santi Forest Monastery with Ayya Analaya
Saving Seeds with Debbie Hebbard

Q&A sessions

Come armed with questions and 'ask the expert' in our program of Q&A sessions

- 10.15am-11.15am Sustainable Initiatives
moderated by Carolyn Webb
- 11.30am-12.15pm Transition Towns
moderated by Sandra Monteith
- 12.30pm Break for Official opening
- 1.00pm-1.45pm Alternative Energy
moderated by Miles Lockhead
- 2.00pm-2.45pm Sustainable eating Can we support ourselves?
moderated by Simon Gilmore
- 3.00pm-3.45pm Designing Sustainable Homes
moderated by Paul Macefield

yummy food

Local and/or organic food including fresh lemonade, tea, coffee, homemade cakes and biscuits, woodfired oven pizzas, sausage sizzle, egg & bacon rolls and more.

Bundy on Tap filtered water available all day!

Supporters Thankyou to the following for their support

childrens activities

- Allday Go for a pony ride, see cute fluffy chicks, stroke a baby rabbit, fish a prize out of the jelly barrel, test your climbing skills at the tree and rope activities or paint your own face
- 10.30 & 2pm Kite Making with Suzie Edwards
Make and decorate your own kite then fly it on the oval
- 10.30, 12.30 & 2pm Face painting with Kirstie Chalker
- 11am, 1pm & 2.30pm Sustainable Houses with Kirstie Chalker
Children learn about then build their own model of a sustainable house from recycled materials
- 11-12pm Mr Bugman will tell the children about the efforts to save the endangered stick insect Lord Howe Island Phasmid

getting there

Bike rides from Bundanoon for all the family Limit 20 people per group

- 9.30am & 11am Meet outside The Bicycle Shop Cafe to join the guided bike rides to the festival
- 2.30pm & 4.00pm Return from Penrose school to Bundanoon

Public transport from Railway Station

- 11.51am Bus from Bundanoon to Penrose
3.16pm Bus from Penrose to Bundanoon

This event is proudly brought to you by Penrose Public School P&C and Penrose Community Association
This is a waste free event. This program is printed on recycled paper. Program correct at time of printing.